Why use InPrime?

InPrime is natural, novel... and effective!

Like other Van Beek Natural Science products, InPrime focuses on natural ingredients chosen for their innate benefits with no known side effects or worries for contraindications. Product formulation is focused around providing a combination of researched ingredients, backed by scientific studies. Lastly, quality products come from quality processes, which is why InPrime proudly bears the NASC (National Animal Supplement Council) quality seal.

When to use InPrime?

Give InPrime to provide proactive support and a better foundation for premium joint health.

InPrime can be used in dogs of all sizes. Joint support is most effective when given at early signs showing the need for joint health support. InPrime should be recommended in large breeds, working dogs, and can be offered following surgery to provide effective joint support.
