

Top Quality German Stainless Steel Surgical Instruments

All Vedco instruments are Grade 1 German Stainless, the highest quality instruments available in the market today. These precision instruments are manufactured to the most exacting standards in the industry using 410-420 surgical grade stainless steel, which is the best series of steel to use for maintaining hardness and longevity. Vedco instruments will provide the surgeon with unfaltering quality, excellent longevity, consistent reliability and a great investment.

The Vedco Spay Pack consists of 21 Grade 1 German stainless steel instruments and tray with lid. The combination in this pack is a popular blend of instruments for use in both canine and feline spays and offers veterinarians the best overall value based on long-term economics.
